Davis Applied Technology College Honors Completers

Kaysville, UT - The Davis Applied Technology College (College) is pleased to announce the latest accomplishments of one hundred eighteen (118) students. These students have successfully completed training in their chosen field and are now prepared to meet new life challenges. In honor and recognition of the completion in their quest for excellence, these students were honored on Thursday, February 27, 2003, at the College's Completer Ceremony.

Mac Christensen, also known as Mr. Mac who serves on the College Board of Trustees as well as the College Foundation Board, welcomed the Completers and their guests. Jay Greaves, the College Vice President of Instruction, gave the opening remarks.

Nathan Clark, the Circulation and Marketing Director for the Standard Examiner, honored eight students, Robert Burgoyne, Brent Burgoyne, Collin Carrigan, Jared Taylor, Carol Stott, Ana-Lisa Delgado, Cristina Nelson and Emily Scheaffer for being selected as Students of the Month.

Joellen Shumway, Nursing Assistant (CNA) instructor, then addressed the group followed by Ema Ostarcevic, a student Completer in the CNA program. Dr. Rick Sline was the guest speaker. Dr. Sline is the Weber State University instructor who taught the first Communications 1050 course to the students at the College who are seeking their Associate of Applied Technology (AAT) degree. He asked the students to compare their lives to the chapters in a book and encouraged them to think about their next chapter and how it will read. He encouraged them to continually learn and grow and challenged them to continue seeking excellence.
